Tools and Things for Work Party & Race Weekend

Here's a list of some of the necessary things you will need to bring along with anything else you might think of:

1. Your motorcycle should be in good shape with a dual sport, play bike or quad preferred. Race bikes tend to make poor work bikes.
2. Daypack, number plate bag for carrying your tools, ribbon, cards, supplies and trash bags.
3. Canteen, camelback or other source of drinking water you can carry while riding and working.
4. Hammer, mini sledge or ball peen hammers work well. Steel hammer loop to hang on your belt with a velcro strap to hold it in.
5. Steel rod. (18" x 3/4") or other steel tool to start pilot holes in hard ground.
6. Heavy Duty staple gun with 1000 1/4" staples.
7. Inner tube rubber bands, bungee cords, rope for tying things together and onto your bike.
8. Lightweight bag (like your camp chairs come in) for carrying stakes.
9. Black broad tip marker for making road-crossing signs.

Updated Referee Report:

Just wanted to say that everyone is working hard on make our race the very best. Loops Captains are pick out some great locations for their loops and making new trails. Everyone enjoys putting on a race, but we all need to remember about cleaning up, pulling ribbons, stakes, signs, ect ect. So please, put the same effort into cleaning up as you would putting on a race.

Leadership and taking ownership of your areas of responsibilities is a massive task. For those fulfilling those shoes please take the time to teach the ones helping you, one never knows who will be stepping up to the plate next year!. For those helping our leaders, please listen, have an open mind, learn to bend like a willow and best of all enjoy the task assigned to you.

In my travels throughout the race community, "COMMUNICATION" is the key to every successful racing event. Our club has three radios, two portable and one mobile, but that's not enough. D-37 will be issuing us additional radios that are required to be in key locations. Other 100s members have purchased their own radios to increase their abilities and for simple enjoyment to listen in on the race. Another tool in our communication armory are cell phones, if your cell phone works at the race, please give your phone number to me along with your duty assignment. If you own a radio or a radio has been assigned to you, please use it wisely, too much radio traffic can cause confusion during the race or hinder others trying to assist a down racers.

This year our club barbeque is being catered by Honorary Member Carlisle Craven. The club is renting a tent to enhance our dining pleasure! The menu consists of grilled tri-tip, grilled chicken, barbeque sauce, rolls, potato salad, baked beans. Chow time is estimated to be around 5:30PM followed by the annual club meeting.

The club has voted to charge the as follows:

$FREE for all members who have paid their dues for the 2007 year

$FREE for Guests who members RSVP'd by phone.

$5.00 for others—until the food runs out—will be enough food for those who RSVP'd

BYOD= Bring your own drinks.

100's,

We have put many things into motion that will make our 2007 event truly special:

1. We will have a tent again this year for eating, meeting, and sign-ups. If it is windy, we will have cover. Bring your tables and chairs, as we have more people to fit into the tent this year. Than last year.
2. BBQ—free for those who RSVP'd thanks to a few of my friends. Honorary member Carlisle Craven has VOLUNTEERED to cook for us. Carlisle has real talent with his BBQ. Additionally, Gary Hurst and his neighbor are volunteering to help prepare dinner. Please remember to Thank those who prepare our meal, they are the reason the club can afford to buy us dinner!
3. 3 loops—perhaps the best format for D-37 Hare & Hound. The beginners will go 1 loop, novices 2 loops, amateurs and experts 3. This allows us to increase difficulty with each loop, challenge more experienced riders and not torture those with less skills.
4. 110 fun miles
5. Check One tribute to F. Paul Russell—see the memorial banner during work party weekend.
6. Finish line festival—We are renting the Racer's M/C finish podium. Each rider will have the opportunity to ride across the elevated podium, say a few words over the PA to the crowd, and have their photo taken with our event banner in the background.

Let's put on the best race of 2007!

During race weekend's Saturday night meeting, we will hold elections for next year's officers. These are my suggestions:

President – Tommy Russell or ??????

VP – Ryan Sanders or ????????

Secretary – Bill Richardson – final year as Secretary

Treasurer – Mindy Mongeon-Fowler

Referee - ???????

Master at Arms – Danny Dodds or ??????

If you have not submitted your 2007 Club application or have not paid your dues, please do so work party weekend. Updating the club database and roster is important.

Thank You—EI Presidente

Qualifications: Must have been an active 100's M.C. member as of June 1st. this year. Be a member of the AMA (Required by AMA and for Club Officers), a District 37 cardholder, club dues paid up, and for the officers who are club board of directors they must be over the age of 18. Being willing and able to serve is important, too.

Offices:

President: Co-ordinates club activities, presides at all club meetings, and is president of the club board of directors, may be a signature of the club checking account.

Vice-President: Keeps club points, runs meetings in absence of president, may be a signature on the club checking account. This position holds a seat on the board of directors.

Secretary: Takes and publishes minutes of club meetings. Signatory on club checking account and is a member of the board of directors.

Treasurer: Takes charge of receiving and disbursing club funds, keeping records of club finances and property, signatory on club checking account. Reports to club board of directors and members.

Referee: In charge of putting on club race (s), board of directors member, and by District 37 rule, a club representative to District 37.

Sgt at Arms: At meetings and direction of the President and officers, maintains order, collects fines, and runs 50-50 drawing.

The club board of directors is responsible for planning club calendar, setting club goals, supervising, communicating with club members and each other, and the well being of the "100's M.C. Incorporated".

Benefits: (Partial List) No dues, lots of work, and usually a place to sit at meetings. :)

The Red Carpet:

A filming crew from Pinnedtv.com will be out at our race shooting footage, one never knows, you might be discovered! The filming crew has been invited to dine with us. The director (Mike) wants to put a big screen tv in our tent so we can watch some of their videos while we enjoy the BBQ and licking our fingers....sweet! As they say in the BBQ world "Slap it and lick it."

Tommy

Oh-oh,...almost forgot...yes I will have peach and apple cobbler there!
